St. Luke news

Because of the many activities in the joining communities, like home comings, family reunions, ect, a light crowd attended the regular 3rd Sunday preaching services at the St. Luke - Baptist Church on Sun., Aug. 17, at 11:00 a.m.

The Pastor, Rev. 4 E. McLaughlin was out on vacation. Rev. Alvin Jones was in charge. He gave a wonderful message. The Senior Choir gave vocal music as the pianist is at the bedside of her very sick mother.

The offering was good.

On Friday, Aug. 22, the St. Luke Choir will be in service at the Chestnut Grove Baptist Church, Appomattox, at 7:30 p.m.

The funeral service for Mr. Marvin E. Elliott was well attended at the St. Luke Church, Aug. 13. Rev. McLaughlin was in charge. Mr. Elliott was the son of the late Deacon A. B. Elliott and Carrie Burnes Elliott. Brother of Mrs. Annie Hubbard of Brookneal; one other sister and five brothers from other cities. Friends and relatives of the family received food for them in the dining area of the church after the funeral service was over.

The Cornerstone Baptist Association was well attended Aug. 13 and 14 at the Jordan Baptist Church. Rev. C. Elliott is Pastor. The church was so beautiful and the air condition was very pleasing in such heated weather. Mrs. Louise Canada attended the service on Aug. 14 and her son, Samuel.

The Cornerstone Sunday School Union will meet with the Mt. Lyle Church School Aug. 31. You're invited to come.

The Rev. R. Q. Lawing was missed very, very much at the association. We are still hoping for improvement for him.

The Homecoming visitors from the cities around have returned to their destination but others are coming in. Rev. Nance and his wife had planned their regular visits to her relatives in the country for a few days as Sat. was her birthday. Preceding the trip, the Rev. called home to Mrs. Catherine Tweedy, a sister to Mrs. Nance, and they planned for a surprise party for Mrs. Nance. Mrs. Tweedy, Mrs. M. Scott, and Mrs. Banks set up the party. The Rev. and Mrs. Nance and a member of the Mt. Hope Church of Baltimore, Md. of which Rev. Nance is Pastor, arrived soon, all other relatives and friends arrived also.

Secretly the table was spread with a beautiful birthday cake in the center done by a friend of the Nances of Baltimore. When Mrs. Nance came out on to the Breezeway, it was thrilling to see her surprised happy expression. She received many nice gifts. This was an enjoyable occasion for all.

Mrs. Luoenda Clayton was a visitor in the home of James and Catherine Tweedy for a week. She has returned to her home in Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Anna Canada and her little granddaughter, Antenette, have returned home after spending a week with her daughter, Remona Canada in Baltimore, Md.

The Maggie Claytor Senior Club, met on Aug. 11 at the home of Mrs. Maggie Claytor. It was quite an interesting meeting, very uplifting to Mrs. Claytor because she lives alone. A delightful lunch was served by Mrs. Claytor. Mrs. Louise Canada assisted her.

The club members still look forward to the volunteer work trip to Lynchburg Home and Hospital each Friday.

Zion Baptist news

I was glad when they said, "let us go into the house of the Lord."

A large crowd of members and visiting freinds attended the regular preaching service held at the Zion Baptist Church Sunday at 11 a.m. with Rev. Charles Lewis. Rev. Lewis preached a challenging message, "The annointed of Christ.
